If you are at the edge of something you are at the border or side.

If you wanted to be anonymous when you wrote a story you wouldn't use your own name.

If you ventured somewhere you went some place new.

If you are unselfish you share with others.

If you described something that happened you told about it.

If you are satisfied you feel happy with the way things are.

If you hesitate you pause or wait before doing something.

If you are neighborly you are friendly to people who live near you.
