

VOCABULARY CARDS: Mr. Putty and Tabby

disturb

underneath

procrastinate

diversion

cozy

enchanting

instead

thrilled

review

celebrate

If something is underneath you, it is below you.

If you disturb someone, you make a noise that bothers him or her.

A diversion is something that takes you away from what you are doing or thinking about.

If you procrastinate, you delay or avoid doing something you need to do.

If you think someone or something is enchanting, you think that person or thing is likeable and enjoyable.

If a place is cozy, it makes you feel warm, happy, and comfortable.

If something thrilled you, it made you feel excited and happy.

When you do one thing instead of a second thing, you do it in place of the second thing.

If you are happy about something, you may have a party to celebrate.

If you say or write what you think about a play, a book, or a movie, you are giving a review.