When you feel very weak,
you are frail.

If you have traveled on a long trip, you have journeyed.

If you hear musical
sounds that are pleasant to listen to, you are hearing something
melodious.

When you see or hear something horrible, or frightening, it is horrendous.

If you sipped, you took a very small drink of something.

If you stomped, you used
your feet to make heavy, pounding steps.

When you talk about everything except one,
you mean all but one.

When you entertain an audience, you do something, such as acting or singing, that you think people will enjoy.

If you hear a screeching
noise, you hear a loud, high sound that can hurt
your ears.

A carefree person does not worry about
problems.
