

VOCABULARY CARDS: What's My Job

sleuths

host

statue

risk

responds

accurately

encountered

originated

opponent

impulsive

The host of a program introduces the guests and talks with them.

Sleuths are people who try to solve crimes or mysteries.

If you take a risk, you take a chance of harm or a bad result.

A statue is a work of art, often showing a person that can be seen from all sides. It may be made of wood, stone, bronze, or some other hard material.

When you do something without making any mistakes, you have done it accurately.

If someone responds to a question, he or she is giving an answer.

The time when something started or began is when it originated.

If you met someone you didn't expect to see, you encountered that person.

When someone often does things without thinking, that person is impulsive.

When you play against someone else to win a game or contest, you are that person's opponent.